To the Parents of the First Holy Communion Class:

The date for Saint Theresa's 2017 Sacrament of First Holy Communion has been set for Saturday, May 12th at 10:00am.

The parish will be holding a couple important meetings prior to First Communion that would include both students and their parents. Parents will be asked to meet to review the importance of the Sacrament, and discuss the arrangements for First Communion day. Typically this first meeting is held on Sunday morning in the church, while your child is in their religious education class. The second meeting will be held the night before First Communion. This meeting is a final run through with the students and their parents. Once these upcoming meetings have been established, a notice will be sent home.

For those students who do not have a copy of their baptism record on file here at Saint Theresa's, please be sure to have this taken care of as soon as possible. In order for your child to receive the Sacrament of First Holy Communion, we must have a baptism copy on file in our parish office.

If you have any questions regarding your child's First Communion, please feel free to contact me at the religious education office or by phone at 508-254-3440.

Yours in Christ,

Toni M Harvey, Coordinator Education Director
